

National Manufacturing Co., Inc. is a leading supplier of deep and shallow draw metal forming services supplying a broad variety of critical service components to sophisticated customers worldwide. Continued growth has created more opportunities for talented individuals to join our team.

National Manufacturing Co., Inc. is currently seeking a Mechanical Engineer Manager with the following experiences.

- * Hold a mechanical engineering degree at a minimum, with a Master's degree a plus
- * Metallurgical education / experience important
- * Ten years of sophisticated tool design and troubleshooting experience in metal forming business with various tool materials and manufacturing processes
- * Experience with secondary processes such as welding, surface treatments, component assembly, robotics desired.
- * Thorough knowledge of mechanical and hydraulic presses, hydro forming, spinning, EDM, CNC machining, metrology
- * Has worked directly with customers in concurrent engineering, product conceptualization and design
- * Thorough knowledge of ISO, 3-D Design and solids modeling, FMEA, PPAP processing.
- * Excellent communication skills, team spirit, creativity; enjoy managing design projects through to completion

We offer attractive benefits including medical, dental, vision, flexible spending accounts, life and LTD insurance and 401(k) plan.

Qualified candidates should forward their resume to via e-mail jmartinez@natlmfg.com or mail National

Manufacturing Co., Inc.
12 River Road
Chatham, NJ 07928.
Please visit our website: www.natlmfg.com